

Math

- Khan Academy - fantastic website with great videos that students can watch over and over till they get the concepts. The math section includes practice and an extensive tracking program for the teachers. <http://www.khanacademy.org/>
- BBC English and Math for Adults - lots of good stuff in here including videos, training, quizzes, and games. <http://www.bbc.co.uk/skillswise>
- TV411 - Get practical practice - reading, writing, vocabulary, math, learning. <http://www.tv411.org/>

Reading

- Goodwill Community Foundation - includes Reading, Computers, and Math. Nice layout with lots of activities. <http://www.gcflearnfree.org/>
- Phonics - good audio and pictures that go along with the words <http://www.fonetiks.org/foniks/>
- Literacynet Learning Resources - Great reading site with stories from CNN and a local CBS affiliate. You can read the story and view the video, then look for the activities on the left to test your knowledge and comprehension - vocabulary, word selection, multiple choice, sequencing, conclusions, and "your turn". <http://literacynet.org/cnnsf/home.html>
- Web English Teacher - good resource for English teachers. <http://www.webenglishteacher.com/index.html>
- California Distance Learning Project - many stories that can be read aloud to the reader by the computer. Includes comprehension qui and other activities. <http://www.cdlponline.org/>
- Montana's list of Reading and Listening Activities - Includes GED practice tests. <http://www.nwlincs.org/mtlincs/pilotproject/reading/readingindex.htm>
- Starfall - starts at the beginning and works its way up. The site is designed for children but is effective for anyone. <http://www.starfall.com/>
- The Learning Edge - has newspaper articles and stories that can be read aloud to the reader. It has good quizzes and is a well laid out website. It has workplace stories and quizzes. <http://www.thewclc.ca/edge/>
- U.S.A. Learns - Learn English and improve basic reading, writing, speaking and life skills. Slick website with videos and audio. www.usalearns.org
- Learning English - free printable materials <http://www.englishbanana.com/>
- BBC English and Math for Adults - lots of good stuff in here including videos, training, quizzes, and games. <http://www.bbc.co.uk/skillswise>
- Pearsonlongman - Online practice reading tests <http://www.pearsonlongman.com/ae/marketing/sfesl/practicereading.html>
- TV411 - Get practical practice " reading, writing, vocabulary, math, learning <http://www.tv411.org/>
- RHL School - Reading comprehension worksheets <http://rhlschool.com/reading.htm>

- Read Write Think - Lesson plans, guides, materials, and more.
<http://www.readwritethink.org/>
- Thinkfinity - Lesson plans, interactive games and tools.
<http://www.thinkfinity.org/student-interactives>

ESL

- PUMAROSA - this site is bilingual phonetic and is designed to help you learn English as quickly and easily as possible. <http://www.pumarosa.com/>
- ESL Resource Center - has various stories with multiple choice exercises.
<http://eslus.com/LESSONS/READING/READ.HTM>
- Rong-Chang - conversations with audio and exercises. Large selection of lessons for beginners and intermediates <http://rong-chang.com/>
- English Speak- text and audio that allows the user to point at any text in the story and it will instantly read it out loud at your chosen speed. <http://englishspeak.com/>
- ESL Cyber Listening Lab- stories are read out loud to the listener with quick quizzes afterwards. <http://esl-lab.com/>
- Colorin Colorado - is a free web-based service that provides information, activities and advice for educators and Spanish-speaking families of English language learners (ELLs).
<http://www.colorincolorado.org/>

Typing

- Sense-Lang - Great typing website. Tutorials and games that are well thought out and informative. Even includes a school section that allows you to register as a teacher and make assignments for your students. <http://www.sense-lang.org/typing/>
- Typing Web - Another good typing website. Tells you your problem keys, has “Tools for Teachers” that allows you to track your students progress and time.
<http://www.typingweb.com/>
- Type Online - lessons, number pad, speed test <http://www.typeonline.co.uk/index.html>

Computers

- BBC Computer Tutor - BBC’s guide to using a computer was made for folks with little to no computer experience. Great guide to getting started that includes mouse, keyboard, and screen (desktop) skills. http://www.bbc.co.uk/computertutor/more_info.shtml
- GCF - Goodwill Community Foundation - Computers, reading, and Math. Computer section includes Computer Basics, Microsoft Excel, Facebook 101, Microsoft Office, Internet Basics, Google, and more. Most sections have lessons, interactives, quizzes and videos. <http://www.gcflearnfree.org/>
- For a full list of topics see <http://www.gcflearnfree.org/topics>
- HP Learning Center - large selection of courses and quizzes including Microsoft Office and PC security and maintenance.
http://h30187.www3.hp.com/all_courses.jsp?hplcpsession.id=1270f75f7d8009bc912c38fc649a
- McGraw Hill

- <http://activities.macmillanmh.com/reading/treasures/stories/teachcls.html> Interactive with audio and video lessons. Extensive collection of lessons.
- Microsoft Office Skills Assessment Tests - Office skills assessment test with detailed reports.
- <http://www.skills-assessment.net/>
- Microsoft Office Training - courses for specific parts of Office. Courses include practice and tests.
- <http://office.microsoft.com/en-us/support/training-FX101782702.aspx>
- Jan's Computer Literacy - not the best of the bunch, but some useful components including quizzes.
- <http://www.jegsworks.com/lessons/>
- Computer Literacy Initiative - Sample Computer Literacy Test
<http://computerliteracyusa.web.officelive.com/default.aspx>
<http://computerliteracyusa.web.officelive.com/sample.aspx>

Various

- Adult Learning Web Resources - Comprehensive list of learning websites
<http://www.alresources.com/>
- Arizona Association for Lifelong Learning - good list of links to English, adult basic education, GED, and more. <http://www.az-aall.org/AALL/Pages/Links/Studentlinks.htm>
- Books Should Be Free - audio books that can be downloaded or streamed.
<http://www.booksshouldbefree.com/>
- Watch Know Learn - large list of learning videos for many subjects.
<http://watchknowlearn.org/default.aspx>
- Free Rice - Great vocabulary site that also includes several other subjects. Works like a multiple choice game. <http://freerice.com>
- Hippo Campus - In depth website with interactive topics and courses.
<http://www.hippocampus.org/>
- Spelling - very good site that allows you to type in your own words and then it will test you by reading the words out loud, also has flash cards and more
<http://www.spellingcity.com/>
- Spelling - you can use this site to get lists of words for a certain grade level, then copy and paste them into spellingcity.com (above) to learn and test
<http://www.homespellingwords.com/index.htm>
- Spelling - list of most common misspelled words on the GED test. Copy and paste parts of the list into spellingcity.com to learn and test <http://www.gedforfree.com/free-ged-course/language-arts/most-commonly-misspelled-ged-words.html>
- Interactive Online Activities for ESL and ABE / GED - great list of websites. If you can't find it on our page look here <https://docs.google.com/document/d/1j907b3kxoEoiJrWEfxFfKC6TRIYwIrWaor6SeJc7f18/edit>

Vocabulary

- Free Rice - Great for vocabulary. It will automatically adjust to your vocabulary level, or hit the change level button to access all levels of vocabulary. It also has several other subjects to choose from. <http://freerice.com>
- Vocabulary.com - Puts words into context and asks multiple choice questions. Works well and you can sign up so it can track your progress. <http://vocabulary.com>

History

- History Channel - quiz game http://quiz.history.com/game_complete
- Khan Academy - history videos <http://www.khanacademy.org/>
- Hippo Campus - In depth website with interactive topics and courses. <http://www.hippocampus.org/>

GED Practice Tests

- Steck Vaughn - practice test by category <http://steckvaughnadult.hmhco.com/en/gedtestmenu.htm>
- Test Prep Review - Printable GED practice test with answer key http://www.testprepreview.com/ged_practice.htm
- Study Guide Zone - GED study guide and practice <http://www.studyguidezone.com/gedtest.htm>
- Quizmoz - Lots of quizzes including GED - <http://www.quizmoz.com/>
- . Another excellent resource for both adult educators and students is KET's GED Connection and Adult Learning Resources at <http://www.ket.org/education/ged-dt.htm>.

General

Wonderopolis <http://wonderopolis.org/> is sponsored by the National Center for Family Literacy and provides exciting opportunities for learning in everyday life